DEFINITION OF A COMPLAINT

Complaint means any oral or written expression of dissatisfaction, whether justified or not, from or on behalf of a person about the provision of a service which constitutes licensed business and which

- alleges that the complainant has suffered, or may suffer, financial loss, material distress or material inconvenience; and
- relates to the provision of the service by or on behalf of the licensed company.

Significant complaint means a complaint that alleges;

- a breach of a regulatory enactment;
- bad faith, malpractice or impropriety on the part of the license or one of its directors, employees or agents;
- the repetition or recurrence of a matter previously complained of (whether significant or otherwise); or
- that the complainant has suffered, or may suffer, financial loss that is material in relation to his or her financial circumstances.

SUMMARY OF COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

The Company fully adheres to the rules on complaint handling. The Company will follow following steps to ensure your complaint is dealt with in the appropriate manner:

- We will record the details of your complaint to Company's Complaints Report and contact you within a reasonable time of receipt of the complaint and confirm to you the person who will be your contact at the Company.
- We will then thoroughly investigate the basis of the complaint using all the information available to us.
- We will assess fairly the subject matter of the complaint and see whether the complaint should be upheld and what remedial action or redress (or both) may be appropriate. After the assessment is completed, we will offer any redress or remedial action, if any;
- We will then let you know the outcome of our investigation.

INFORMATION REQUIRED

When making a complaint, the following information shall be included:

- Client's trading account number;
- Client's name and surname;
- A description of the problem and affected transaction number (if applicable)
- The date and time that the issue arose, and
- Any other relevant details and supporting documents, where appropriate.

Contact details of where to make your complaint can be found in Section CONTACT DETAILS.

A complaint must not include offensive language directed either to the Company or a company employee.

TIMESCALES

We will always try and deal with your complaint as quickly as possible. An initial response will be sent to you within one month receiving the complaint. Within this email we will provide you with further details on the process we will take to investigate your complaint.
